3 Read the following text and answer the following questions:

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a person can have. A true friend is someone who stands by you in both good and difficult times. They support you when you feel sad and celebrate your success when you achieve something important. Real friends don't only share fun moments; they also give honest advice when you make mistakes. This advice might not always be pleasant, but it helps you grow and become a better person. A true friend listens carefully when you talk and respects your feelings even if they don't fully agree with you. They don't talk behind your back or leave you when you face challenges. Instead, they offer help, time, and understanding. Many people may come and go in your life, but true friends remain close because their friendship is built on trust and loyalty. That is why choosing your friends wisely can influence your future in a positive way.
